

Prepared for Universal Credit?

- I know who to contact if I need to learn how to use a computer
- I have an email address
- I know where to go to make my claim for Universal Credit if I don't have access to a computer
- I have opened/already have a fee free bank account that will allow payments of UC and direct debits
- I have details of my households personal information on hand to make a claim
- I have contacted DGHP to speak to them about my rent payments
- I know who to contact if I need help with budgeting and managing my money
- I know where to go if I need help to deal with my debts
- I know who to get support from to help get me ready for work and to increase my chances of finding work